

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEMGM JOINS iFLIX FAMILY AS STRATEGIC INVESTOR

KUALA LUMPUR, 20 August 2015 – iflix, Southeast Asia's leading Internet TV service, offering subscribers unlimited access to tens of thousands of hours of entertainment for a low monthly price, is pleased to announce that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer (MGM), one of Hollywood's most acclaimed and prestigious studios has become an investor in the business.

The investment represents a significant deepening of the relationship between iflix and MGM, which includes the appointment of MGM Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Gary Barber, to iflix's Advisory Board and the companies' extensive multi-year content licensing partnership. Through the agreement MGM contributes premium in-demand television and film content that comprises a portion of the 20,000 movies and television episodes that make up iflix's extraordinary library of top entertainment content.

iflix Group CEO, Mark Britt said: "We are thrilled to have a studio partner and strategic investor of MGM's caliber join the iflix family. MGM's substantial weight, influence and resources in the industry will be a critical advantage for us in the development and execution of our strategy as we look to solidify our leadership in the region and expand into new markets."

"This partnership once again reaffirms iflix's commitment to work with the absolute best companies and brands globally. – We look forward to continuing to strengthen our relationship going forward," continued Britt.

"iflix is an innovative and rapidly growing service," said Barber. "We are always looking at new strategic investment opportunities and this is one about which we are very excited."

Having recently launched in Malaysia and the Philippines, iflix will roll out its world class service to additional key Southeast Asian markets, including Thailand and Indonesia throughout 2015, offering consumers the largest library of top U.S., Asian regional, and local TV shows and movies available in the region. Each subscription allows users to access the service on five devices such as mobile, tablet, computer, or television set, for viewing anywhere, anytime. The service is priced at only RM8 per month in Malaysia for
