

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEFOX'S NEW HIT SERIES, MINORITY REPORT PREMIERES EXCLUSIVELY ON IFLIX MALAYSIA

KUALA LUMPUR, 19 October 2015 – iflix, Southeast Asia's leading Internet TV service, offering subscribers unlimited access to tens of thousands of hours of entertainment, is pleased to announce it has acquired exclusive, first run rights to Minority Report in Malaysia. The first three episodes of the season are currently available for viewing, exclusively on iflix, with each succeeding episode added every Tuesday, the same day as its initial U.S. broadcast.

Based on the international blockbuster film, starring Tom Cruise, by executive producer Steven Spielberg. Minority Report is the first of Spielberg's films to be adapted for television. The series follows the unlikely partnership between a man haunted by the future and a cop haunted by her past, as they race to stop the worst crimes of the year 2065 before they happen. Set in Washington, D.C., it is 10 years after the demise of Pre-crime, a law enforcement agency tasked with identifying and eliminating criminals...before their crimes were committed. To carry out this brand of justice, the agency used three precogs – “precognitives” Dash, Arthur and Agatha – who were able to see the future.

iflix Co-founder and Group CEO, Mark Britt commented, “We are thrilled to premiere another one of this season's hottest shows, Minority Report to our audiences in Southeast Asia. Based on Steven Spielberg's action thriller film, the series is now available, fast tracked from the U.S. less than 24-hours after its initial broadcast only on iflix, exclusively to our subscribers in Malaysia.”

“As the region's leading Internet TV service, we are thrilled to deepen our relationship with Twentieth Century Fox Television Distribution, one of the world's preeminent content producers, to bring the best in television content to our viewers,” Britt added.
